

My Heart Sings to You!

A Psalm by Shawn in in Gratitude for His Mercies!

YHWH, my God

The God of my salvation

Who has delivered me from the pit

And set me on the path of service to you!

Your wonders are to wonderous to ponder

And yet must needs be told!

Lead me and the wife of my youth in your service

All the days of our lives.

Let our lives be long together, be fruitful together

And Together always praise you for your mercies and gifts.

May we never depart from your path—the path of righteousness and justice.

May we always be a witness to your ways, your mercies, and your provisions.

We will sing of your great love and faithfulness in the houses of our fathers

And in the streets of our neighbors and in the country of those who don't know you!

Continue to bless us oh YHWH our God.

Make us to ever dwell in the palm of your hand!
